

Monetary Authority of Macao – Press Release

Monetary and Financial Statistics – October 2008

According to statistics released today by the Monetary Authority of Macao, on a monthly basis, deposits in banks decreased. Although domestic credit to the private sector continued to grow, public sector deposits rose at a faster pace, resulting in a decline in total domestic credit (domestic credit to the private sector + credit to the public sector – public sector deposits).

Money supply

Due to the decreases of currency in circulation and demand deposits, M1 shrank 9.5% month-to-month. In contrast, quasi-monetary liabilities rose slightly by 0.4%. The sum of these two items, i.e. M2, thus edged down by 0.8% to MOP189.5 billion. On an annual basis, M1 and M2 rose 8.0% and 1.1% respectively. In terms of currency structure, the shares of Pataca (MOP) in M2 stood at 28.0%, up 0.2 percentage points over a month ago or 1.0 percentage point over a year earlier respectively. Concurrently, the share of Hong Kong Dollar (HKD) in M2 was 51.7%, down by 0.1 percentage point month-to-month or 3.5 percentage points year-on-year.

Deposits

Resident deposits declined slightly by 0.8% month-to-month to MOP185.2 billion. Of which, MOP deposits, HKD deposits and other foreign currency deposits dropped at respective rates of 0.1%, 1.1% and 1.0%. Meanwhile, non-resident deposits amounted to MOP66.2 billion, down 6.9%. As a result, total deposits with Macao banks decreased by 2.5%. The shares of MOP and HKD in total deposits were 20.5% and 46.8%, respectively.

Net foreign assets

Net foreign assets held by the Monetary Authority of Macao (AMCM) at end-October 2008 reached MOP135.9 billion, down 0.6% month-to-month or up 21.6% year-on-year. At the same time, net foreign assets of local banks dropped 0.6% from the previous month to MOP89.8 billion.

Domestic credit

Domestic credit to the private sector increased 1.1% month-to-month to MOP93.2 billion; of which, MOP18.2 billion was MOP-denominated and MOP67.0 billion was denominated in HKD, representing 19.6% and 71.9% respectively of the total. Public sector deposits placed with banks and the AMCM totalled MOP90.7 billion, equivalent to an increase of MOP1.5 billion from September 2008. Total domestic credit, after deducting public sector deposits, shrank by 13.8% to MOP2.5 billion.

With regard to currency denomination, domestic credit to the private sector in MOP and HKD increased by 0.9% and 2.2% respectively while those of other foreign currencies declined by 6.5%. At end-October 2008, the loan-to-deposit ratio for the resident sector grew by 1.1 percentage points month-to-month to 47.5% while the ratio for both residents and non-residents stood at 60.0%, up 0.4 percentage points.
