

Monetary Authority of Macao – Press Release

Monetary and Financial Statistics – May 2008

According to statistics published today by the Monetary Authority of Macao, on a monthly basis, total deposits in banks dropped slightly in May. Although domestic credit to the private sector continued to grow, total domestic credit (domestic credit to the private sector + credit to the public sector – public sector deposits) noted a decline due to the strong growth in public sector deposits.

Money supply

Attributed to the increases of currency in circulation and demand deposits, M1 grew 3.4% month-to-month. Quasi-monetary liabilities, however, slid 0.6%. The sum of these two items, i.e. M2, dropped marginally by 0.1% to MOP184.6 billion. On an annual basis, M1 and M2 rose 27.8% and 5.0% respectively. In terms of currency structure, the shares of Pataca (MOP) and Hong Kong Dollar (HKD) in M2 stood at 28.1% and 53.0%, up by 0.3 percentage points and down by 0.2 percentage points over a month ago respectively. Compared with a year earlier, the share of MOP increased by 1.1 percentage points whereas the share of HKD declined by 1.3 percentage points.

Deposits

Resident deposits edged down 0.1% month-to-month to MOP180.5 billion; of which, MOP deposits rose 0.8% while HKD and other foreign currency deposits dropped 0.6% and 0.3% respectively. Meanwhile, non-resident deposits amounted to MOP76.4 billion, down 0.2%. Total deposits with Macao banks (including resident and nonresident deposits but excluding public sector deposits) dropped slightly by 0.2%. The shares of MOP and HKD in total deposits were 19.5% and 45.1% respectively, amounting to MOP50.2 billion and MOP115.8 billion.

Net foreign assets

Net foreign assets held by the Monetary Authority of Macao (AMCM) at end-May 2008 reached MOP128.8 billion, up 0.1% month-to-month or 30.8% year-on-year. Net foreign assets of local banks increased 2.0% from the previous month to MOP90.2 billion.

Domestic credit

Domestic credit to the private sector rose 1.3% month-to-month to MOP83.8 billion; of which, MOP17.8 billion was MOP-denominated and MOP58.3 billion was HKD-denominated, representing 21.2% and 69.6% respectively of the total. Public sector deposits placed with banks and the AMCM totalled MOP80.5 billion, equivalent to an increase of MOP2.6 billion from April 2008. Total domestic credit, after deducting public sector deposits, registered a notable decline of 31.7% to MOP3.4 billion.

With regard to currency denomination, domestic credit to the private sector in MOP and HKD increased 2.2% and 3.5% respectively, while that of other foreign currencies dropped 14.1%. At end-May 2008, the loan-to-deposit ratio for the resident sector (including public sector deposits) grew by 0.6 percentage points month-to-month to 43.5% whilst the ratio for both resident and non-resident sectors increased to 59.4%, up 3.7 percentage points.
