Monetary and Financial Statistics – September 2008

According to statistics published today by the Monetary Authority of Macao, on a monthly basis, deposits in banks noted an increase in September. Although public sector deposits continued to grow, domestic credit to the private sector rose at a faster pace, resulting in a substantial gain in total domestic credit (domestic credit to the private sector + credit to the public sector – public sector deposits).

Money supply

Currency in circulation increased whereas demand deposits marked a decline. M1 thus shrank 2.7% month-to-month. Meanwhile, quasi-monetary liabilities increased 1.0%. As a result, the sum of these two items, i.e. M2, grew by 0.5% to MOP191.1 billion. On an annual basis, M1 and M2 grew 26.6% and 4.8% respectively. In terms of currency structure, the shares of Pataca (MOP) and Hong Kong Dollar (HKD) in M2 stood at 27.8% and 51.8%, up by 0.7 percentage points and down by 2.5 percentage points over a year ago respectively.

Deposits

Resident deposits edged up by 0.4% month-to-month to MOP186.7 billion. Of which, MOP deposits, HKD deposits and other foreign currency deposits rose at respective rates of 0.3%, 0.4% and 0.7%. On the other hand, non-resident deposits amounted to MOP71.1 billion, up 2.5%. As a result, total deposits with Macao banks increased by 1.0%. The shares of MOP and HKD in total deposits were 19.9% and 46.1%, respectively, to MOP51.4 billion and MOP118.9 billion.

Net foreign assets

Net foreign assets held by the Monetary Authority of Macao (AMCM) at end-September 2008 reached MOP136.7 billion, up 1.5% month-to-month or 25.8% year-on-year. At the same time, net foreign assets of local banks dropped 2.2% from the previous month to MOP90.3 billion.

Domestic credit

Domestic credit to the private sector increased 3.6% month-to-month to MOP92.1 billion; of which, MOP18.1 billion was MOP-denominated and MOP65.5 billion was denominated in HKD, representing 19.6% and 71.1% respectively of the total. Public sector deposits placed with banks and the AMCM totalled MOP89.3 billion, equivalent to an increase of MOP2.0 billion from August 2008. Total domestic credit, after deducting public sector deposits, rose sharply by 65.8% month-to-month to MOP2.9 billion.

With regard to currency denomination, domestic credit to the private sector in MOP and HKD increased by 0.5% and 5.0% respectively while those of other foreign currencies declined slightly by 0.8%. At end-September 2008, the loan-to-deposit ratio for the resident sector grew by 1.5 percentage points month-to-month to 46.4% while the ratio for both resident and non-resident sectors stood at 59.7%, down 1.6 percentage points.

Analysed by the sectoral distribution, except “manufacturing industries” which noted a decline of 5.9%, all major sectors witnessed increases in credit in the third quarter. Among which, credit extended to “individuals for house purchases”, “construction and public works” and “restaurants, hotels and related activities” grew quarter-to-quarter at respective rates of 5.2%, 24.6% and 17.2%.
